NEW POSITION

AT

ILLINOIS COALITION AGAINST SEXUAL ASSAULT (ICASA)
ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE, SPRINGFIELD, IL

PUBLIC POLICY COORDINATOR

This new Legal Team position will provide public policy outreach, research, tools, assistance, education, and coordination. They will collaborate with the General Counsel and others to develop public policy priorities, strategies, materials, and trainings, and will represent ICASA at legislative visits and other meetings.

Experience: Bachelor's degree and three years of relevant experience in public policy, lobbying, government relations, law, or political organizing. Additional relevant on-the-job and life experience may substitute for bachelor's degree.

Skills: Ability to contribute to public policy and legal work pertinent to sexual assault and to collaborate on research and preparation of materials. Ability to build and maintain relationships with diverse stakeholders. Knowledge of legislative process. Ability to clearly communicate about public policy in oral and written form. Strong public speaking skills. Ability to understand complex issues and contribute to effective negotiation and advocacy strategies. Project management skills, attention to detail, and ability to adjust as priorities change. Must be familiar with sexual assault issues from a feminist perspective.

ICASA is an equal opportunity employer that values an inclusive culture. Studies have shown women, LGBTQ+ folks, and BIPOC are less likely to apply for a job unless they believe they meet every single qualification. ICASA is committed to building a diverse workforce and interested in finding the best candidate for the job. We are eager for applications from people with non-traditional backgrounds and strongly encourage all interested candidates to apply.

The position is based in Springfield with limited travel required and reports to the General Counsel. Starting salary: $52,500-$62,500.

To apply, send cover letter and resume to C. Ward, Chief Executive Officer, Illinois Coalition Against Sexual Assault, 100 N. 16th St, Springfield, IL 62703, or email icasa@icasa.org. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
